My Darling:-

I have been enjoying the "Transcript," but had to reread some of my "love letters" and now, can't go to sleep with-out telling you that I really love you, and that you have my whole heart, except Mamas little corner. - You have all the kisses. "one, two, three <sup>and</sup> more" -

Dearest I got several ideas about "Clubs, etc" from this evening reading, oh, what would I do with-out you to guide me. Dearest, and I am going to try to show my appreciation of ~~you~~ and your help to me, by being one of best informed, most lady like girls on our Day. (I mean this is my aim.) Dearest, really I have always desired to be "somebody," and now since I belong to someone that I love, who too is ambitious for me, I will be, ~~not~~ in a day, but I hope steady every day until I reach that point that you would have me.

I just feel like I could do anything tonight, if you commanded me to.

Dearest, I like your name so much, but if I did not it would make very little difference now, since I "like" you.

I received a letter from "Patt" (brother) today, he made me a very close price on the "Farm site property", maybe I can get a purchaser, and make a little "Chicken money" there, at least I'll keep my eyes opened. Papa does not like the ~~figure~~ price he made, at all, but the price is there all the same! Will tell my sweetheart all about it if kind "Fate" will ever give me time and opportunity.

Dearest, in my passed life I did things because I wanted To, but now I have a better reason because the one I love so -dearly, ~~wants~~ ~~me~~ -to do, to be,

-dearie, if I should ever turn "savage" you ought to lock me up in the closet. -don't you think? -

Guess I'd better reread my love letters, and go to sleep and -dream about you so goodnight "peacefull and refreshing slumbers," and all the kisses your heart could desire,

Yours,
Lillian.
